

SOMERSET CHURCH OF CHRIST

Love Covers a Multitude of Sins

Loving our neighbors shouldn't be a daunting task. When we look like Jesus, we are always prepared to suffer. We should not look at suffering as a punishment from God, but as an honor. Peter tells his readers that "whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, so as to live the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God" (1 Peter 1:1-2). Since Christ suffered in the flesh, Peter says to "arm yourselves with the same way of thinking." If we are prepared to suffer, we expect that it will come. It should be no surprise when we suffer in the flesh.

Peter goes on to say, "The end of all things is at hand; therefore be self-controlled and sober-minded for the sake of your prayers. Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins" (1 Peter 4:8). Peter is not excusing sin by any means, but he is saying that self-controlled people who suffer for Christ will not keep a record of wrongs. Love teaches us how to help those who sin. Jesus did not ridicule every person he met. In fact, the religious leaders were upset that Jesus didn't ridicule sinners and tax collectors. Love covers a multitude of sins.--Jimmy Hinton
