

God's Love in Haiti

As we continue our theme this year on loving your neighbor, we are reminded that Steph and Roni Bhullar have taken the command to love thy neighbor to our neighbors in Haiti. We often think of our neighbors as people who live in close proximity to us. While this can be true, our "close neighbors" are not the only ones God had in mind. Jesus told the parable of the Good Samaritan in response to the question, "And who is my neighbor?" (Luke 10:29). As Jesus described this parable, he asks the rhetorical question, "Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?" (Luke 10:36). It's interesting that the neighbor in this text is the one doing the benevolent deed.

It's not just about loving our neighbors. It's also about being a neighbor to our neighbors. Being a neighbor means that we love and care for others. When people fall on hard times, or are beaten and oppressed, or are fatherless, or are widowed, we need to be a neighbor to those neighbors. Love requires us to serve. There is no way around it. We're excited to hear from Steph and Roni and their work in carrying out the 2nd greatest commandment to our Haitian neighbors!--Jimmy Hinton
