

You Will Do the Works I Do

In John 14 Jesus told his disciples that he was going to prepare a place for them. He said that, if he is going to prepare the place, he would return later to bring them to that place. Clearly he was speaking of Heaven and the second coming. When Thomas confessed that he didn't know where Jesus was going so they didn't know the way, Jesus famously replied, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me" (John 14:6). Jesus told them that if they know Jesus they know the Father too.

There's even better news: "Truly, truly I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask anything in my name, I will do it" (John 14:12-14). Not only is Jesus preparing a place for his disciples, but he promises we will do better works than he did because he is going to the Father! This message is still every bit as true today. If we believe that we have whatever we ask in His name, it will be given to us.--Jimmy Hinton
